

The FCC should not implement
any proposal that would lessen
Indiana's Telephone Privacy law
protections.

Indiana's Telephone Privacy law
has improved our time at home.

I used to receive an overwhelming amount of calls per week, now I may receive one.

I think phone solicitation is rude and an extreme invasion of my privacy.